4. As Administrative Advisor, Prime Clerk will perform the bankruptcy administration services specified in the Application and the Engagement Agreement. In performing such services, Prime Clerk will charge the Debtors the rates set forth in the Engagement Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit C to the Application.

5. Prime Clerk is a “disinterested person” as that term is defined in section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code, in that Prime Clerk and its professional personnel:

- (a) are not creditors, equity security holders, or insiders of the Debtors;
- (b) are not and were not, within two years before the date of the filing of these cases, directors, officers, or employees of the Debtors; and
- (c) do not have an interest materially adverse to the interest of the Debtors’ estates or of any class of creditors or equity security holders, by reason of any direct or indirect relationship to, connection with, or interest in, the Debtors.

6. I caused to be submitted for review by our conflicts system the names of all known potential parties-in-interest (the “Potential Parties in Interest”) in these chapter 11 cases. The list of Potential Parties in Interest was provided by the Debtors and included the Debtors, non-Debtor affiliates, current and former directors and officers of the Debtors, significant stockholders, secured creditors, lenders, the Debtors’ 50 largest unsecured creditors on a consolidated basis, contract counterparties, landlords, vendors, insurers, utilities, governmental authorities, the United States Trustee and persons employed in the office of the United States Trustee, and other parties. The results of the conflict check were compiled and reviewed by Prime Clerk professionals under my supervision. At this time, and as set forth in further detail herein, Prime Clerk is not aware of any connection that would present a disqualifying conflict of interest. Should Prime Clerk discover any new relevant facts or connections bearing on the matters described herein during the period of its retention, Prime Clerk will use reasonable efforts to file promptly a supplemental declaration.

7. To the best of my knowledge, and based solely upon information provided to me by the Debtors, and except as provided herein, neither Prime Clerk, nor any of its professionals, has any materially adverse connection to the Debtors, their creditors or other relevant parties. Prime Clerk may have relationships with certain of the Debtors' creditors as vendors or in connection with cases in which Prime Clerk serves or has served in a neutral capacity as claims and noticing agent and/or administrative advisor for another chapter 11 debtor.

8. Certain of Prime Clerk's professionals were partners of or formerly employed by firms that are providing or may provide professional services to parties in interest in these cases. Such firms include Kirkland & Ellis LLP; Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP; O'Melveny & Myers LLP; Mayer Brown LLP; Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson LLP; Bracewell LLP; Proskauer Rose LLP; Curtis, Mallet-Prevost, Colt & Mosle LLP; Baker & Hostetler LLP; Togut, Segal & Segal LLP; Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP; Centerview Partners LLC; PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP ("PWC"); KPMG LLP; Epiq Bankruptcy Solutions, LLC; Donlin, Recano & Company, Inc. and Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC. Except as may be disclosed herein, these professionals did not work on any matters involving the Debtors while employed by their previous firms. Moreover, these professionals were not employed by their previous firms when these chapter 11 cases were filed.

9. Prime Clerk hereby discloses the following connections, each of which Prime Clerk believes does not present an interest adverse to the Debtors and is disclosed solely out of an abundance of caution:

- Jordan Searles is a Director at Prime Clerk. Mr. Searles' brother, Adam Searles, is a Director at AlixPartners, LLC, the Debtors' restructuring professionals.

- Heidi Stern, Chief Financial Officer at Prime Clerk, and Diana Shih, Controller at Prime Clerk, were formerly associates at PWC, one of the Debtors' vendors. Ms. Stern and Ms. Shih left PWC in 2011. Neither Ms. Stern nor Ms. Shih worked on any matters involving the Debtors during their time at PWC.
- Shira D. Weiner, General Counsel at Prime Clerk, was formerly an associate at Gibson Dunn, one of the Debtors' ordinary course professionals. Ms. Weiner left Gibson Dunn in April 2017. Ms. Weiner did not work on any matters involving the Debtors during her time at Gibson Dunn.
- Marc Brown, a Solicitation Consultant at Prime Clerk, was formerly an associate at Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP ("Skadden"), one of the Debtors' ordinary course professionals. Mr. Brown left Skadden in 2004. Mr. Brown did not work on any matters involving the Debtors during his time at Skadden.
- James Waldron is a Senior Advisor at Prime Clerk. Mr. Waldron's daughter is an associate at Lowenstein Sandler LLP, one of the Debtors' vendors.
- Stephanie Basta is Chief People Officer at Prime Clerk. Ms. Basta's husband, Paul Basta, is a Partner at Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP, counsel to certain of the Debtors' directors and officers. Ms. Basta's role at Prime Clerk is purely administrative and, as such, she does not work on any of the firm's cases.
- A Consultant at Prime Clerk has a personal relationship with an Associate at Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP, counsel to the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors. This Consultant holds no equity interest in Prime Clerk and receives no compensation based upon Prime Clerk's revenue.

10. Prime Clerk is an indirect subsidiary of Duff & Phelps LLP ("D&P"). D&P is the global advisor that protects, restores and maximizes value for clients. Within the D&P corporate structure, Prime Clerk operates independently from D&P. As such, any relationships that D&P and its affiliates maintain do not create an interest of Prime Clerk that is materially adverse to the Debtors' estates or any class of creditors or security holders. D&P is not currently identified on the Potential Parties in Interest list, but Prime Clerk makes this disclosure out of an abundance of caution.

11. Prime Clerk has and will continue to represent clients in matters unrelated to these chapter 11 cases. In addition, in matters unrelated to these cases, Prime Clerk and its personnel have and will continue to have relationships personally or in the ordinary course of business with certain vendors, professionals, financial institutions, and other parties in interest that may be involved in the Debtors' chapter 11 cases. Prime Clerk may also provide professional services to entities or persons that may be creditors or parties in interest in these chapter 11 cases, which services do not directly relate to, or have any direct connection with, these chapter 11 cases or the Debtors.

12. Prime Clerk, and its personnel in their individual capacities, regularly utilize the services of law firms, investment banking and advisory firms, accounting firms and financial advisors. Such firms engaged by Prime Clerk or its personnel may appear in chapter 11 cases representing the Debtors or parties in interest. All engagements where such firms represent Prime Clerk or its personnel in their individual capacities are unrelated to these chapter 11 cases.

13. As part of its conflicts check process, Prime Clerk submitted for review by each of its partners and employees the list of Potential Parties in Interest provided by the Debtors to determine whether any partner or employee holds an adverse interest to any of the Debtors and/or is a "disinterested person," as such term is defined in the Bankruptcy Code. In addition, the partners and employees of Prime Clerk were asked to review their investment holdings, to the extent possible, to determine whether they have any direct or indirect ownership of the Debtors' securities. Upon information and belief, and upon such reasonable inquiry by Prime Clerk and the results thereof, Prime Clerk is not aware that any of its partners or employees directly or indirectly own any debt or equity securities of a company that is a Debtor or of any of its affiliates. Moreover, Prime Clerk has a policy prohibiting its partners and employees from using confidential information that may come to their attention in the course of their work. In this regard, subject to non-discretionary Investment Funds (as defined below), all Prime Clerk partners and employees are barred from trading in securities with respect to matters in which Prime Clerk is retained.

14. As a general matter, in the infrequent case when a Prime Clerk partner or employee may, directly or indirectly, own a debt or equity security of a company which may become or becomes a debtor or a debtor affiliate, such ownership would be substantially less than one percent of any such debtor or debtor affiliate. Additionally, from time to time, Prime Clerk partners or employees may personally invest in mutual funds, retirement funds, private equity funds, venture capital funds, hedge funds and other types of investment funds (the “Investment Funds”), through which such individuals may indirectly acquire a debt or equity security of many companies, one of which may be one of the Debtors or their affiliates. Any partner or employee who has made any such investment does not manage or otherwise control such Investment Fund. The Investment Funds are managed by third parties, and Prime Clerk partners or employees that may invest in the particular Investment Fund have no influence, discretion, or control over the Investment Fund’s decision to buy, sell or vote any particular debt or equity securities comprising the particular Investment Fund and in certain instances, partners or employees may not be aware of the particular debt or equity securities comprising the particular Investment Fund.

15. Based on the foregoing, I believe that Prime Clerk is a “disinterested person” as that term is defined in section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code. Moreover, to the best of my knowledge and belief, neither Prime Clerk nor any of its partners or employees hold or represent any interest materially adverse to the Debtors’ estates.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my information, knowledge and belief.
